

Best practice NO 1

“Annual Free Health checkup Camp “

Title: Annual Free Health checkup Camp

An initiative under institute social responsibility (ISR)

Objective:

- 1) to create awareness and find out un healthy citizens of our town
- 2) to provide free of cost treatment in our city hospitals

Context:

The Health camp was organized in collaboration with JJ hospital Aurangabad and India health line camp Aurangabad

Practice:

Rajarshi Shahu institute of management has under taken memorandum of understanding with JJ hospitals Aurangabad. Every year the institute conduct free health checkup camp for every citizens irrespective of cast and creed the basic objective of the health checkup is to identify patients suffering from various disease the camp last for couple of days (2 days) health checkup camp provides facility of multi specialist doctor and supporting staff such as ophthalmology for eye checkup and further treatment of eye cataract surgery in JJ hospital with the support of lions club. Cardiologists for patient suffering from heart ailment ortho for bone related ailments and the doctors for checking blood pressure and BMI (Body mass index)

Conclusion

- 1) Lot of persons have been benefited by these camp
- 2) Persons below poverty line has blessed this occasion for free treatment

Health Camp Report 2020 -2021

Under the banner of BJPS Society and the guidance of Honorable Chairman and Director of the institute Dr. Ejaz Ahmed Qureshi , Rajarshi Shahu Institute of management carried out its Annual health care Activity organized a overall health check up camp in different localities of Aurangabad city .

Ist such camp was organized on 2nd October to mark Gandhi Jayanti at Baliram Patil school situated in N-9 locality .

The health camp was arranged in collaboration with JJhospital Aurangabad and Mr. Hemant Trivedi India health line Maha Mantri International Hindu parishad leded the camp ,

Doctors present were ophthalmic and orthopedic and general physician.

The No. of persons visited for health check up were 170

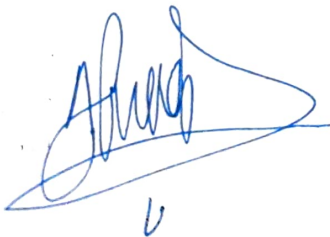

Every visitor was given slip to get their overall health check up Mr. Hemant Trivedi along with his assistant checked weight, body mass index ,of every person than he gave health ,diet and exercise related tips and important information .

Then the members got their Blood pressure and blood sugar level were checked then individually each member went for eye check up ,during the eye check up if the patients were diagnosed with cataract problem they were called to the hospital and were operated free of cost for cataract removal procedure. Almost 13 patients got their cataract removal on this day.

The 2nd camp was held on 16th of October Dnayanesh vidya Mandir N-2 area of Aurangabad Doctors from JJ hospital attended the patients and the persons diagnosed with cataract were called to the hospital for cataract surgery.

The number of beneficiaries who had their surgery successful in this camp was 8 in number.

And overall the members for health check up were 250.

DIRECTOR
Rajarshi Shahu Institute
Of Management

Best practice NO 2

“Distribution of free food to blind and cancer affected patients “

Title: Distribution of free food to blind and cancer affected patients

An initiative under institute social responsibility (ISR)

Objective:

To help poor persons affected by cancer disease and blind poor persons by providing free meal

Context :

Cancer is widely spreading disease and cancer suffering person's patient's impact has on his /her family members

Practice:

The institute under institute social responsibility maintains the practice of distributing free meal to cancer affected patients and poor blind persons the institute chairman's birthday is celebrated in different way wherein the chairman celebrated the birthday with poor persons by distributing free meals with sweets in the cancer hospital in our city the food is provided by the caterer to the relatives of the cancer patients and also cancer affected patients it is a regular activity which is carried out on every 7th of July the institute teaching and non-teaching members are actively involved in distributing food packets and sweets

Conclusion:

Free food (meal) distribution is social activity which is carried by our chairman under institute social responsibility

Best practice 2

“Distribution of free food to blind and cancer affected patients “

